NEW YORK YACHTSMEN TAKE POSSESSION THE WILL OF MRS, LUCY FAYERWEATHER OF THE SOUND.

THE WASP LEADS ALL THE SLOOPS AND SCHOONERS IN A BEAT TO WINDWARD ORDERS FOR THE CRUISE.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE. New-Haven, August 2 .- A fresh breeze from the east blew away the cloud of smoke that sprang from seventy cannon as the Electra steamed into the harbor of Glen Cove yesterday porning and all the assembled yachts saluted the fag of the commodore. It was the rendezvous be free for the benefactions for which he originally of the fleet of the New-York Yacht Club, pre- intended it. mratory to the first run of the annual cruise, and the yachts, hemmed in by the high green hills that surround the sheltered harbor, lay beautiful and serene, but with swiftness indicated in every lipe of hull, and a yearning to spring eastward which made them try at their anchor chains like a pack of splendid hounds awaiting the slipping the leash. To-night, four miles below city, in the calm waters of Morris Cove, the fleet rides at anchor, while the waves dash over the through the darkness and the rain.

Among the /yachts which started on the cruise sterday were the following: Steam-yachts-Sultana, Sapphire, Jean, Radha, Emu, Magnolia, Nesira, Ituria, Electra, Clermont, Videtta, Fedalina, Conqueror, Vivienne, Oneida, Avend, Allegro, Nydia and Vamoose. Schooners-Agnes, Coronet, Shamrock, Montauk, Lanca, Marguerite, Alert, Gevalia, Pocahontas, Dauntless, Victor, Iroquois, Magie, Phantom, Lasca, Miranda, Alcaea, Merlin, Atlantic, Constellation, Azalea, Quickstep and Fortuna. Sloops-Wasp, Gloriana, Desiere, Athlon, Katrina, Clara, Sayoria, Concord, Nirvana, Elnor, Titans, Fanny, Lois, Wizard, Whitby, Ventina, Sagitta, Evelyn, Peeri, Nymph and Gracie.

It has been a hard day's run, all windward work, under cloudy skies, and with the wind freshening all the time. It was 9 o'block before the first of the sailing yachts got in, and up to midnight the stragglers kept arriving. No time was taken at the start or finish, as the run was and Wasp, and the schooners Alcaea and Lasca go were brought together for the first time. The Gloriana and Wasp. The Wasp never did so well. She sailed like the wind, and it was as if in her exhibitions in New-York Bay she had not been half trying. When, at 1 o'clock, the starting signal was given, the Gloriana was one of the first boats to get under way. The Wasp came up from the westward just the Gloriana emerged from the mass of towering sails which was pouring out of the harbor. She made at once for the white sloop, Gloriana refused battle. She towed small boat astern, and it was apparently not her racing day. She kept away from the Wasp as much as possible, and there was nothing in her sailing to recall the wonderful fleetness with which she last year astonished the world and made a revolution in naval architecture. The Wasp, on the contrary, went thrashing ahead, and took the lead of tre fleet. She took a good lead, too, and on the stage.

There was no light in the western sky where the sun was setting, but low along the eastern horizon, between the dark rim of the sea and the heavy seen of the yachts as they were making for the William II. She looks small, but is said to have lots of room aboard of her As soon as the commodore came to anchor last night he issued the following order, which will govern the squadron's runs from port to port:

The fleet will get under way at 3 a clock temorrow morning for the run to New-London. A large number of yachts are waiting to join the fleet there. The North Atlantic Squadron is also there, and what with yachts and warships, the mouth of the Thames will be a place worth seeing for those who have a love for the ocean in their hearts, and like to look at the examples of fleetness and prowess which man has built to sail upon the waters. The revenue cutter Grant was the rendezvous at Glen Cove this morning with the tendezvous at Glen Cove this morning with pess and provess which man has built to sail upon the waters. WILL PROLONG THE FIGHT.

SENTIMENT OF A BIG MEETING OF THE HOMESTEAD EMPLOYES.

CONTESTS FOR THE STATE SINGLE AND NATIONAL THE MECHANICS AGREE TO STAND FIRM-WHAT A COMMITTEE OF THE LOCKED-OUT MEN

SAW IN THE MILLS-ABOUT 300 NEW MEN SET AT WORK.

Homestead, Penn., Aug. 2.-The thirty-ninth day of the strike closed this evening with both sides claiming victory. As a result of strenuous endeavors on the part of the Amalgamated Association, the wavering laborers were once again brought into line, and are to-night more enthushastic than the tonnage men. The entire strength of the Amalgamated Association was brought to bear on the mechanical departments to achieve that end, and it appears to be successful-for the moment, at any rate. The head officials of the from and steel workers' organization and representatives from Carnegie mills engaged in the sympathy strike exhorted the men, painting glowing pictures for the future, and left nothing undone to bind closer to them the 1,200 day wage-earners who struck to help the tonnage men. A monster meeting was held in the Opera House here, at which all day inborers were induced to be present. On the stage were President Wethe, Vice-President Willfam A. Carney, Secretary John C. Killgullin, Trustea John Pierce and Jere Dougherty, of the Amalgamated Association, each of whom made an address. In addition to these officials, representatives from the negte mills at Duqueane and Beaver Fulls told how much the men there were doing for Homesfend. T. W. Brown, who presided, told the men that they could expect some valuable support from trades unions, not only in this country, but abroad, and he read letters offering aid, not only from different parts of America, but from England and Scotland.

An important feature of the meeting was the report of a committee which had gone through the mill. A committee of eight Amalgamated Association men at noon called upon Superintendent Potter and told him of the meeting, adding that they would like to the mill was really being operated, as was alleged by the firm. They stated that they would report at the merting. The committee really did not think the manage ment would entertain its requests, but Mr. Potter cheerfully agreed to take four members through the mill, and the did. The committee reported that the firm had a large number of men working, with a few expedenced rollers, who turned out two or three plates a day. number of men, however, were unskilled. The committee found no cause for discour . The report was really a surprise to the would not accept press statements. The sted officials raised them immediately, ho gamated officials railed them immediately, however, and the meeting adjourned with a unanimous seniment in favor of prolonging the struggle. That is the strikers' side, and while there is plenty of enthusiasm on their side, the Carnegle Company is rapidly filling its piant with non-union men. This evening Superintendent Potter said that in round numbers 300 new men came in to-day and fourteen thomestead workers. In all he asserts that he has 1,200 workmen to-night, many of whom are skilled steel workers.

Manager Potter's report to-day of his acquistions of men was a rosy one. He said: "We received this morning 190 men from Balimore and Philadelphia, and thirty-two from Cheinnati. Of the former a number are guaranteed steel workmen from Sparars."

Fittsburg, Aug. 2.— About 150 men were working in the upper Union Mills to-day, and the cight, ten and twelve inch mills and the plate mill were in operation. To-morrow, superintenaent Dillon says, the second plate mill will be started. The strikers deny the above statements of the mill officials. They assert that no Amalgamated men have returned, and that, while a few men have gone back, none of them are skilled. All the blacksmiths, several engineers and the remaining fitters left work to-day, in sympathy with the locked-only men. A large force of the city police and locked-only men. A party of ten laborers who came here from Cincinnati with forty-four others on a special train for Homestead this morning, but who refused to go to work in the mill, were taken in charge by members of the Amalgamasted, and will probably be sent flome by the association. The men asserted that they had been deceived by the agent who hired them, and that they did not know their destination was Homestead. A half-dizen other men, they faild, left the train at Newark, ohio. The remainder consented to go to work, and are now in the mill. Four additional deputy sheriffs were sent up to Homestead to day. At the meeting of the borough Council last night, flurgess McLackle charged that the soldiers wer not particular whom they accested, and that the wives and daughters of the residents of Homestead were not safe. TO PROCEED AGAINST CARNEGIE OFFICIALS Pittsburg, Aug. 2 .- Mr. Cox, the lawyer, said this afternoon that it had been decided to bring suits at once against H. C. Frick, Secretary Lovejoy and Superintendent Potter for conspiracy. The papers will be ready for filing to-morrow morning. The charges are founded upon the introduction of the Pinkertons, which precipitated the riot on July 6. ANARCHISTS DID NOT VIOLATE THE LAW. District-Attorney Nicoll said yesterday that he had read the accounts in the morning papers of the utterances at the Anarchists' Bowery on Monday night. He did not think that any of the speakers had laid themselves open to criminal prosecution. Mr. Nicoll said that he had asked Inspector Steers to have one of his men at future Anarchistic meetings to make a report of what
